Moderato

The musical score is written for voice and piano. It begins with a piano introduction marked 'Moderato' and a forte 'f' dynamic. The piano part features a melody in the right hand and a harmonic accompaniment in the left hand. The voice part enters with the lyrics 'When twilight shades are softly falling, And nature seems to be at rest, 'Tis O, could we live the dear old love-days, And breathe once more its magic spell, And then we love to dream of love-days, Days of old that we loved best. tell again the old, old story That we loved so well to tell. How around the fire-side oft we'd gather With the loved ones gone away, Then let memory's picture with us linger With its thoughts so sweet and rare,'. The score includes piano dynamics 'p' and 'fz'.

When twilight shades are soft-ly fall-ing, And na - ture seems to be at rest, 'Tis O, could we live the dear old love-days, And breathe once more its mag-ic spell, And then we love to dream of love-days, Days of old that we loved best. — tell a - gain the old, old sto - ry That we loved so well to tell. —

How a - round the fire-side oft we'd gath - er With the loved ones gone a - way, —
Then let mem-ry's pic - ture with us lin - ger With its thoughts so sweet and rare, —

Soon we know that they will be re - turn - ing, As we wait we'll smile and say:—
 May the love - light be to us the bright - est, When we say our ev - 'ning pray'r.

CHORUS

Very slow
 Let love - light — be al - ways shin - ing For the loved ones a - way, — Each cloud has — a sil - ver lin - ing That bright - ens the way; — And when they — will be re - turn - ing, Let no tears re - main, — But smile up — and show the love - light When they come home a - gain. Let gain. —
